Making Memories That Last A Lifetime!

Our Community Helping Out At Camp

Being part of the United Way is more than being just a recipient of donations from businesses, employees and community members. The United Way brings people together to help address the needs of our community and leading to improving the lives of individuals in the community. 'Day of Caring' brings business members out to non-profit agencies to lend a helping hand for the day. For the second year in a row the Charles County Sheriff's department has chosen to help out at LCM in projects from rebuilding our canoe rack, painting cabin decks and building a new fire pit for our campers and rental groups to use.

Wounded Warrior Weekend At LCM!

Our doors were open August 26-28 to veterans who proudly served our country. Folks had a great weekend filled with fishing, swimming, relaxing, zip lining, camp fire with s'mores, boating and comradery among fellow veterans and friends.

With the help of Am Vets of Waldorf, Fort Belvoir, LCM Board, Rucci's Deli, Roy Rogers Restaurant, Blue Dog Saloon, and a great group of volunteers who provided all the planning and work to give these veterans and their families a weekend to remember. Saturday afternoon Kenny Shontere, camp employee, provided steamed crabs and he was thanked by one Veteran who said 'I love crabs and it has been over year since I have been able to enjoy them!' We look forward to making this an annual event !
